

Ms. Cohn-Payne has been practicing plaintiff's personal injury law for twenty-five years. She has extensive experience in automobile personal injury, civil litigation, medical malpractice, premises liability, and products liability. She has been heavily involved in all aspects of discovery procedures and proceedings and has tried many cases to verdict.

Ms. Cohn-Payne has also acted as a settlement conference judge for the San Francisco County Superior Court. She has been a consulting editor for Matthew Bender's Automobile Liability publication of Practice and Pleadings and a contributing editor of The Art of Advocacy and California Forms of Jury Instructions published by Lexus Nexis. Additionally, she is also co-author of The California Automobile Collision Handbook. Ms. Cohn-Payne has been a guest lecturer providing her expertise in the area of premises liability law.

She has been a Florida State Bar member since 1983 and a member of the California State Bar since 1989. Memberships include: Consumer Attorneys of California, Sonoma Bar Association and San Francisco Trial Lawyers Association.

After two hours, fee dependent upon number of parties and complexity of matter.

Dona Cohn-Payne of Cohn Law Firm
Tel: (707) 935-9393 Fax: (707) 935-9396
Email: dona@cohnlawoffice.com